FROM THE SECRETARIAT

Dear Friends,

An important date in the social justice calendar of the Catholic Church in Australia occurs during September with the celebration of Social Justice Sunday.

This year, Social Justice Sunday is celebrated on Sunday 25th September.

The 2005 Social Justice Sunday Statement will be launched on Wednesday 14th September in Sydney.

Entitled "Jesus, Light for the World – Living the Gospel Today", the Statement draws on the Gospel accounts of the life and ministry of Jesus to consider our calling to bring the light of Christ to the world.

Bishop Christopher Saunders introduces the Statement with these words: "The light of the Risen Christ illuminates our lives – transforming the day-to-day realities of our world and bringing hope to situations of human tragedy and seemingly insurmountable despair..."

"This statement brings to each of us the Word of God and reminds us of the baptismal call we share to bring this Good News to the world. We are called, not just to follow the light, but to be the light for others. We are called to bring Christ's light to all people, serving them in their need and celebrating their joys and hopes."

As Social Justice Sunday fast approaches, now is the time to place an order for copies of the Statement. An order form for 10 or more copies is available at: <http://www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au> or a free electronic version will be available from Wednesday 14th September on the websites of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference (<http://www.acbc.catholic.org.au>) and ACSJC.

Other Social Justice Sunday resources available on the website include Summary and Liturgy Notes. The Liturgy Notes reflect on the theme of the Social Justice Statement for the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Resources for Teachers will soon be available.

The next leaflet in the "Ten Steps" series – Ten Steps Towards Living the Gospel Today – provides practical suggestions that we can take as individuals and in our families, schools, parishes and local communities. The leaflet is accompanied by the Prayer Card. Call the ACSJC on (02) 9956 5811 for further information.

I hope these resources will assist in your reflection and preparations for Social Justice Sunday. Please feel free to distribute this information through your own networks.

- John Ferguson (National Executive Officer)

CURRENT ISSUES/RESOURCES

PUBLICATION – FROM PATRONS TO PARTNERS

A new, extended edition of the History of the Catholic Church in the Kimberley which was first published in 1994. The original edition traced the first hundred years of the interwoven story of the European missionaries and the Aboriginal people of the Kimberley from 1884. For the new book the author, Margaret Zucker, has interviewed people and relatives of "the stolen generation", who were separated from their families as young children and were brought up and educated at the Missions in Beagle Bay and Broome. Their stories, and the stories of the Sisters who looked after them, form a major part of the new section in the second edition. $29.95 plus postage. Order at:
<http://www.broomediocese.org/Fromptop.htm> or call (08) 9192 1060

NATSICC – MESSAGE STICK

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council is planning to celebrate the 20th Anniversary of Pope John Paul II's visit to Alice Springs by holding its National Assembly in the Red Centre in October 2006. The original visit occurred in 1986 and was the venue for the Pope's important speech, his address to Aboriginal people. In the lead-up to this event, NATSICC's Councillors are sending a Message Stick through Deaneries, Parishes, Schools and communities. This event is a pilgrimage that will bring all of the States together in Alice Springs for the Assembly in 2006. For more information and to see how you can be involved visit: http://www.natsicc.org.au/message\_stick\_relay.htm

OXFAM – LAND RIGHTS

Jon Altman, Craig Linkhorn and Jennifer Clarke assisted by Bill Fogarty and Kali Napier have produced the Oxfam publication "Land rights and development reform in remote Australia". Recent Indigenous policy debate has centred on whether encouraging private individual land ownership might increase economic development and address acute housing needs in rural and remote Indigenous communities. Proponents suggest it will. Oxfam Australia commissioned the Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy Research at the ANU to examine this issue. The report confirms deeply entrenched Indigenous disadvantage on NT Aboriginal land, including in housing. Yet it finds no evidence to suggest that individual land ownership is either necessary or sufficient to increase economic development or housing construction. The publication can be downloaded at:
<http://www.oxfam.org.au/campaigns/indigenous/docs/landrights.pdf>

CARITAS – MAKE POVERTY HISTORY

In September 2000, 189 United Nations member states, including Australia, signed the Millennium Declaration that aimed to halve world poverty by 2015. From this declaration came the eight Millennium Development Goals (MDGs). The MDGs recognise that we are the generation that can "Make Poverty History". We have the knowledge, the resources, the interest and commitment and we are building the political will. Caritas Australia has produced a short film introducing the MDGs and the compelling facts on world poverty. The film invites you to get involved to "Make Poverty History". For a free copy of the film on video or DVD contact Caritas on tel: (02) 9956 5799, email: thereser@caritas.org.au or visit: <http://www.caritas.org.au>

CEA – NATIONAL CLIMATE CHANGE CONFERENCE

Catholic Earthcare Australia is running a national conference, "Climate Change - Our Responsibility to Sustain God's Earth" from 18 – 20 November in Canberra. It will bring together members of the Church as well as representatives of public bodies, other faith communities, NGOs and international guests. The event aims to establish a dialogue with the wider community on ways to tackle the serious problems which climate change brings and to alert the Church to the reality of this global phenomenon and the need for action. Nobel Laureate Professor Wangari Maathai will open the conference which will be hosted by the bishops of Catholic Earthcare Australia. For further info call (02) 4655 4855 and visit: <http://www.catholicearthcareoz.net/>

ACMRO – "ONE IN JESUS CHRIST"

The Australian Catholic Migrant and Refugee Office is taking registrations for a national conference on "Pastoral Care in a Culturally Diverse Australia". This conference will be of particular interest to Priests, Religious and Lay people involved in the pastoral care of migrants and refugees. It will be held at the Randwick Racecourse Function Centre in Sydney on 17 – 18 November. For further info contact (02) 6201 9848 and visit <http://www.acmro.catholic.org.au/>

HREOC PROJECT – VOICES AUSTRALIA

The National Rugby League (NRL) have joined forces with the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission to tackle racism head on through their support for 'Voices of Australia' - a project to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Racial Discrimination Act. The aim of 'Voices of Australia' is to encourage greater understanding and friendship between people of different backgrounds through sharing the stories of their experiences. NRL stars from diverse cultural backgrounds share their real life stories. You can read your NRL stars' stories and tell your own by logging onto <http://www.humanrights.gov.au/voices>. Selected stories will be placed online for all to read. Email voices@humanrights.gov.au or call (02) 9284 9829.

ANTI-POVERTY WEEK 2005

Anti-Poverty Week (16 – 22 October) aims to strengthen public understanding of the causes and consequences of poverty and hardship around the world and within Australia. It also aims to encourage research, discussion and action to address these problems, including action by individuals, communities, organisations and governments. Everyone who is interested in helping to reduce poverty and hardship here or overseas is encouraged to organise their own activities during the Week or join in some being organised by other people. The activities can be large or small, and events at the local level are especially welcome. The official Anti-Poverty Week website is <http://www.antipovertyweek.org.au> It includes details of events being planned as well as basic fact sheets, promotional material and links to sources of information and ideas about ways of reducing poverty and hardship.

SEPTEMBER SOCIAL JUSTICE CALENDAR - LIVING THE GOSPEL IN TODAY'S SOCIETY

Many Christians believe that such issues as world hunger, homelessness, the arms trade and war are political, not religious issues. Yet the words of Scripture and Catholic Social Teaching challenge us to live justly in today's society by confronting such issues and working to change the structures that perpetuate injustice.

"My duty is to put Christ in politics. Politics without Christ is the greatest scourge of our nation". - Cardinal Sin, Manila, 2003

SCRIPTURE

*May we always remember what our God asks of us:
that we will do justice
that we will love with constancy and tenderness
and that we will walk humbly with our God.
(Micah 6:8)*

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
and he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.
(Luke 4: 18-19)*

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

The joys and the hopes, the griefs and the anxieties of the people of this age, especially those who are poor or in any way afflicted, these are the joys and hopes, the griefs and anxieties of the followers of Christ. Indeed, nothing genuinely human fails to raise an echo in their hearts.

(Vatican Council II, Gaudium et Spes, The Church in the Modern World, 1)

Let each person examine one's conscience, a conscience that conveys a new message for our times. Is each prepared to support out of one's own pocket, works and undertakings organized in favour of the most destitute? Is each ready to pay higher taxes so that the government can do more for development? Is each ready to pay a higher price for imported goods so that the producer may be paid a just wage?

(Paul VI: Populorum Progressio, On the Development of Peoples, 47)

PRAYER FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY

*We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end war;
For we know that You have made the world in a way
That we must find our own paths to peace
Within ourselves and with our neighbours.*

*We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end starvation;
For You have already given us the resources
With which to feed the entire world,
If we would only use them wisely.*

*We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to root out prejudice;
For You have already given us eyes
With which to see the good in others,
If we would only use them rightly.*

*We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end despair;
For You have already given us the power
To clear away slums and to give hope,
If we would only use our power justly.*

*We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end disease;
For You have already given us great minds
With which to search out cures and healings,
If we would only use them constructively.*

*Therefore, we pray to You instead, O God,
For strength, determination, and will power,
To do instead of just to pray,
To become instead of merely to wish,
For Your sake and for ours, speedily and soon,
That our land and world may be safe,
And that our lives may be blessed.*
(A Sabbath Prayer by Jack Riemer from Likrat Shabbat)
